The Importance of a Business Education.

Young man, do you know that a business education is worth more to you, through the battles of life, than great riches? Do you know that the charter member scholarships of Wood's College are being fast taken up by the young men and women of Shenandoah and surrounding towns? Do you know and realize that the price for a charter membership for a combined course is just half price? Do you know, if you would secure one of these charter memberships, you should act at once?

Do you know that Prof. S. I. Wood, the president of Wood's Shenandoah College, is one of the most thorough business college men in the United States?

And do you know, if you would not miss a charter member scholarship, you must see Prof. Thomas Martin, the special organizer, or his assistant, Julia Byrne, at the Ferguson House.

At Wm. Penn To-night.
A strong cast of performers will give an entertainment to-night at Wm. Penn, under the management of Norman Moore. Such talented artists as Millie Myrtle, in her barefoot Trilby dance, and Lillie Revere in her own peculiar dance, will appear, together with that red-hot song and dance team, Hall and Williams. Prominent among the Shenandoah talent which will appear is William Thomas, who, in conjunction with Mr. Moore, will play the ends during the first part. This affair promises to eclipse any thing of a like nature ever before held in Wm. Penn and should be well patronized, thus encouraging other good attractions to play the town.

Shoe Factory Fight.
A riot occurred yesterday at Landingville resulting from a dispute as to the ownership of the Zuber Shoe Factory at that place, which was sold out about two months ago by the Sheriff, J. R. Matthews, of New York city, and Albert Grier, of Philadelphia, two of the heaviest creditors, bought it in Francis Zuber and the Board of Trade of Landingville claim that through a technicality they still own the property and refused to vacate. Suit was brought to oust Zuber and his party before a Justice of the Peace, who held Zuber under $300 bail. Zuber immediately brought a similar suit against Montgomery, who was held under $1,000 bail. The Montgomery party then sent their agents to Landingville, who entered the factory, barricaded the doors and nailed up the windows. The Zuber party hearing of this brought another suit for forcible entry and detainer. Constables who served the warrants were denied admittance. They, assisted by Zuber and about a dozen citizens, assaulted the factory, but were driven back with bloodshed, but no serious injury was sustained. After several assaults the factory was entered and arrests made, each prisoner being put under heavy bail.

A Dude Tramp.
Three men were furnished with lodgings in the Council Chamber last night. Two were regular Weary Waddlers. The third was a flashy dressed young fellow who displayed a superabundance of cuffs and intoxicants, but he was able to navigate to an arm with considerable grace and dignity. He drew forth a cigarette and surveyed his surroundings with a sang-froid that caused one of his less fortunate companions to exclaim, "Hully gee, is dis a Wandergould that we have run up against?" The dude turned a scornful glance upon the speaker and retorted, "No, sir; you are gravely mistaken. It is true I am not in your class, but unfortunately I cannot lay claim to the identity with which you would honor me." The tramp for whom the answer was intended stood agast and an involuntary sound like "whew!" escaped from his parted lips. "What is your name, and where do you hail from?" asked Policeman Lee. "My name is John W. Morgan; permanent address, Hazleton, Pa." The policeman retired with a low courtesy. Mr. Morgan, of Hazleton, left town via the east-bound L. V. R. E. truck this morning.

Schelly House Special To-night.

Another Cave-in at Bells Tunnel.
Another cave-in occurred at Bells Tunnel, near Mt. Carmel. The opening is about three times as large as the one that took place last week. The ground for a hundred yards on either side of the hole is cracking and residents of the little town are afraid to venture near. The village is still safe, the last cave-in occurring a hundred yards east of it.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

Arbitrators Give an Award in Favor of the Former.
Messrs. James Grant, William Krick and T. R. Beddall, Esq., probably heard enough of the relations of landlord and tenant yesterday to satisfy the most voracious appetite for such knowledge. For one whole day, with the exception of a brief intermission for lunch, they sat in the office of M. M. Burke, Esq., in the Egan building, and listened to the evidence of witnesses in behalf of Samuel Block, as tenant, on one side, and John Dowling, as landlord, on the other. The former is a clothing merchant having a store at the southwest corner of Main and Cherry streets and, notwithstanding the bitterness of the law suit which was arbitrated yesterday, continues as the tenant of Mr. Dowling. There were three lawyers in the case, J. H. Ponroy and E. W. Shoemaker, Esqs., appearing for the prosecutor, who was Mr. Block, and M. M. Burke, Esq., appearing for Mr. Dowling. The object of the suit was to recover from Mr. Dowling $75 worth of goods which that gentleman had seized through Constable Bain in payment for rent he claimed was due from Mr. Block for occupation of the premises during the month of December, last.

Mr. Block refused to pay the rent for that month, amounting to $40, and paid all subsequent rents under protest because he claimed the landlord had failed to keep an agreement to make certain repairs and improvements. Mr. Dowling said he kept all agreements and that Block asked for too much. It was shown in evidence that Mr. Dowling notified the tenant not to make any improvements and repairs without his consent and workmen hired by Mr. Block testified that they were driven from the premises by the landlord. Mr. Block eventually had work done in addition to that Mr. Dowling caused to be made. The lawyers on each side occupied about fifteen minutes in summing up and the arbitrators gave an award in favor of the landlord for $40 rent and the costs, which will amount to about $35. These sums, with the cost of improvements and repairs he made on his own volition, lawyers' fees, etc., will make Mr. Block's expenses run up to about $175.

A Coming Home Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Anna, daughter of Mrs. Kate Bright Wilhelm, formerly of Ashland, to Mr. H. Oppenheimer, of Philadelphia, is announced to take place at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Wm. H. Bright, on Wednesday, April 24th. It will be a private ceremony, to be performed by the Rev. F. S. Hort, of the Presbyterian church. The bride, to be, is one of Ashland's favorite and most beautiful girls. Mr. Oppenheimer is the private secretary for the firm of Osbourne & Co., manufacturers of farming implements at Philadelphia, in which city they will make their home.

Mine Workers' Convention.
A convention of the United Mine Workers of America, of Anthracite District No. 1, was held in Pottsville yesterday, the business considered being of a routine nature. The main topic discussed was the formation of groups of Locals into sub-districts. The Anthracite Locals will be divided into eight subdivisions as follows: The Shamokin district will extend from that place to Mt. Carmel, taking in Locust Gap and all other nearby places. Another district will be formed of territory from Centralia, taking in Locustdale, and up through the Shenandoah Valley as far as Jackson's. Another will run from Girardville, taking in Frackville, Morca, New Boston and as far as Buck Mountain. Tamaqua, Coal Dale and up through that valley will form another sub-district.

Shenandoah heads the list and will receive $15,000; Pottsville, $8,280; Mahanoy City, $14,400; Ashland, $5,520; Girardville, $4,440; Minersville, $3,340. SEC'Y CHICAGO JOURNAL.

Col. R. M. Littler Recommends That Best of Remedies, Paine's Celery Compound.

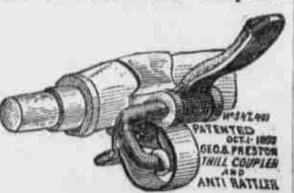

For 10 years secretary of the National butter and egg association, and since 1882 secretary of the Chicago produce exchange, Col. Robert M. Littler has been in constant demand as a bureau of information by correspondents who recognize Chicago as the commercial center of the country. When such people as Col. Littler, State Treas. Colvin, of New York, Modjeska, the actress, ex-Minister to Austria John M. Francis, and hosts of other equally responsible persons volunteer testimonials as to the wonderful virtue of Paine's celery compound, no sick or suffering person can with any show of reason hesitate to make use of the great remedy that has made so many people well. Col. Littler says: "I have used with great benefit several bottles of Paine's celery compound and I have recommended it to my friends. It is a wonderful spring remedy." Go to the busiest lawyer, editor or business man of your acquaintance who has taken

Paine's celery compound. There are hosts of such professional men in every city who would hardly spare you a moment's time for strictly business matters. Ask one of them in his busiest hours whether he can recommend Paine's celery compound, and ten chances to one he'll say: "Sit down. No matter about my being busy; always glad to praise Paine's celery compound." That is the feeling among people who have been made strong and well by Paine's celery compound. They never feel happier than when they can persuade some man or woman who is out of health to try Paine's celery compound. Next to doing good to one's self there is a delight in doing good to others. There is no more enthusiastic body of intelligent men and women throughout the country than the great army of those who have recovered health by the use of Paine's celery compound. The vast majority of diseases that end disastrously might be quickly and permanently cured if sick persons could only be induced to take Paine's celery compound. If women, burdened beyond their strength with household cares, would only take Paine's celery compound, when they feel that dispirited, enervated condition coming on, they would escape the martyrdom of backache, headache, disordered liver and heart trouble. Instead of being thin, nervous and unhappy they would experience the joy of perfect health, sound digestion and quiet nerves. Paine's celery compound is just the remedy needed by women who are in continual ill-health and spirits, seemingly well one day and almost sick the next. Their trouble lies plainly in the want of good rich blood, and plenty of it, and in the consequent famished state of their nerves. Paine's celery compound should be taken without delay. It will restore the health and stop every tendency toward a debilitated condition.
